N. Y., in 1868. He practiced only a few years, as his planting interest consumed most of his time in a vocational way. He is a member of the Methodist church, has been a steward for years, often serving as its Chairman. He is a Democrat and for many years Chairman of the Executive Committee in Monroe County. He was Alderman of the City of Aberdeen for fourteen years. In 1919 he was elected to the Senate for the 1920-24 term of the Legislature and is one of the most faithful and conscientious members of the body. He belonged to the conservative wing of the Senate and kept cool and calm under the heavy fire of debate that more often summed itself up as a tempest in a teapot.

In 1872 Senator Sykes was married to Eliza Brandon Clopton, daughter of W. H. Clopton, a large planter in that section. He has three living children: W. Clopton Sykes, W. Granville Sykes, Jr., and Mrs. Donie Sykes Napier.

THIRTY-NINTH DISTRICT

Nevin C. Hathorn

NEVIN C. HATHORN, of Columbia, Senator from the Thirty-ninth District was born March 1, 1849 at Wilksburg, Covington County, Miss. His father, Nevin C. Hathorn, Sr., was born in Georgia and lived at Wilksburg, Miss., fifty-nine years. He never held office nor was he in war service. He was a successful farmer for over forty years. The paternal grandparents of the subject were Samuel and Amie (Holloway) Hathorn who lived at Wilksburg, Miss., thirty odd years. The maiden name of Mr. Hathorn's mother was Edy Gardner. She was the daughter of William C. and Elizabeth (Berry) Gardner, who lived at Wilksburg, Miss., fifty years. Samuel Hathorn, the grandfather, was born in Ireland in 1780 and came to this country in 1800. He served in the War of 1812 and was with Andrew Jackson in the battle of New Orleans. At that time he was a citizen of the State of Georgia. He removed from

Georgia in 1818 to Mississippi and settled fourteen miles north of Columbia near Wilksburg and the remainder of his life was spent in farming.

Nevin C. Hathorn went to school only a few months to William Barnes, at the age of seven; to Mrs. Laura Webb, at the age of fourteen; and seven months to A. W.
Stringer at the age of seventeen. "This was all the schooling." The story of Senator Hathorn's life is a typical one of the young men of the rural districts whose education was interrupted by the war.

He engaged in farming until he was fifty years old; then he was a railroad depot agent for two years and postmaster at Columbia, Miss. for fifteen years, Feb. 1, 1903 to Feb.
1, 1918, inclusive. He was a member of the Legislature from Covington County, two years and from Marion County eight years.
He represented Covington County in the Constitutional Convention of 1890. Senator Hathorn is one of the oldest representatives in the public life of the State.

He helped to organize the People's Party and assisted in advocating its principles until the Democrats as he contends, returned to Jeffersonian doctrines and since that time he has been affiliated with the Democratic Party. He is a member of the Baptist Church and belongs to no fraternal organizations.

In 1919 Senator Hathorn was elected to the Senate, this mark of confidence coming to him in his seventieth year is the best evidence of his standing with the people of his district. As a Senator he is faithful to duty.

Feb. 21, 1870, at White Sand, Miss., he was married the first time to Susan Cooper, the daughter of Capt. John D. Cooper, who was killed in battle, 1864, and Elizabeth (Tyrone) Cooper, who lived at White Sands, Miss. There were eleven children born: Dr.
H. Guy, Stanley J., deceased; Claude V., Karl Schurtz Hathorn, deceased; Robert Reese, Fleet Cooper, Dr. Mary Maxwell, Ruth Gardner, Samuel B., Dr. John D., Nevin C.

Senator Hathorn's second wife was Sarah Dale, the daughter of Dr. Hardy Dale and Elizabeth (Barnes) Dale, who lived at Society Hill, Miss. They were married August 8, 1915 and have no children.

FORTIETH DISTRICT

Jess Emerson
Stockstill

JESS EMERSON STOCKSTILL, of Picayune, Mississippi, Senator from the Fortieth District, was born November 12, 1884, near Nicholson, Hancock County, Mississippi. His father, George Washington Stockstill, was also born in that county, near Gainesville, and lived there until after the War. July 1861, G. W. Stockstill enlisted in the Gainesville Rifles of the Confederate Army. He served at the Siege and Battle of Vicksburg. His father, Thomas Stockstill, was of Scotch-Irish descent and a native of South Carolina, but came to Mississippi in 1840, and married Harriet Warden. After the War, G. W. Stockstill removed to Nicholson, Mississippi, where he became a merchant, farmer and stock raiser. Frances Annie Stockstill, mother of the subject of our sketch, was born in Jackson County, Florida; her maiden name was Smith. Jordan Smith, her father, was a rich slave holder, who removed to Mississippi in 1845, bringing his slaves with him, and settled near Gainesville. He and his wife, Frances Ann (Whitfield) Smith, were both of Scotch descent; their parents came from Scotland to the southern coast of Florida during the period of colonial settlement. He served as a soldier in the Indian Wars, including the Seminole, that being the last one in which he took part. Mr. Stockstill obtained his early education in the rural schools of Hancock County. He was graduated with distinction from the Poplarville High School in 1906. During the time of his attendance there he was a teacher in Hancock County, teaching in summer schools to secure money to pursue his education. After completing high school he taught at Picayune and became very prominent as one

ATTENTION all Hathorn/Hawthorn/Hawthorne researchers. I am compiling a data base on All Hawthorn lines to be found anywhere... If you have info and would like to share I would appreciate it. My main information base now is on the John and Elizabeth Hathorn/Hawthorn family from SC.
They arrived in Charleston, SC Christmas day 1767 and settled in what is now Fairfield County SC. I have info>> on about 2000 direct descendants and their spouses. This is about 10 generations. I would be happy to share what I have.
If you are a Hawthorne and received my E-mail, welcome. If you are new to Genealogy, start by posting what you know about your family and lets start from there.

Dear Jean Strickland and Patricia N. Edwards,
I have two questions for you.

1) How can I obtain a copy of your book
"Who Married Whom" Covington County, Mississippi Copyright 1991? What is the cost of the book?

I have many relatives who lived in Covington County in 1840, 1850, etc., and some are living there now. I am glad to see this book come out. I hope someone does the same for Smith County, Scott Co, & Leake Counties.

2) On page 67 of the above named book
Sarah M. Hathorn, daughter of Nevil C. Hathorn, born 1853, was listed as the wife of James M. Clark.

Is James M. Clark, the James Monroe Clark, son of James Jackson Clark and Reziah Wellborn Clark of Covington County, Mississippi?

If you do not know, do you know who might help me with this?

I know who James Monroe Clark's and wife is.

I have been working on this last question since 1978. I have made many trips to Covington County, Mississippi to try and find the answer to this question but have had no success. My Grandmother was raised an orphan and so was her Dad, Wiley Clark, son of James Monroe Clark and his first wife. Wiley Clark's mother died at childbirth or shortly after; this came from relatives.

I have done a good bit of research on Covington County families and have a good bit of information on these families.

I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for your return reply.

Sincerely
Red Marcus Christen
